By Clifford Newton Mills. Published by D. Van Nostrand Company. New York City. Cloth. 5 x 7 m.; 127 pages. Price $1. This is another of a number of similar books which have appeared in the last three or four years and is arranged for students who have previously studied trigonometry. It is intended as a basis for a semester's work of three hours per week. The subject matter is divided into three parts--kinematics, kinetics and statics. Throughout many problems have been given, so that the students may...
