Not illustrated. 1918 Excerpt: .this line of procedure; and it is interesting to note that this Committee subserves the triple interests of medical war history (for Great Britain), scientific research, and National Health Insurance, i. e., the adjudication of pension claims. The important outstanding themes--cerebro spinal fever, trench nephritis, Mediterranean dysentery, D. A. H., gas poisoning, wound shock, oxygen needs of aviation officers--are not allowed to go stale and languish, but are handled and taken care of now by the proper experts. This idea of interim publication is freely and generously encouraged by our chief, the Surgeon General, and is amply supported by our best medical periodicals. The pages of The Military Surgeon have been accessible for this purpose since the war began. The rest of the American material lies in our hospitals in France, England and Italy, and Colonel McCulloch, executive officer of the board, has recently been detailed...
