Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from State Fair of North Carolina: To Be Held by the North Carolina Agricultural Society at Raleigh, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, October 17, 18, 19, 29, 21, 22, 1910 The year 1010 finds the State Fair at a half-century milepost in its long and honorable career. For fifty consecutive years since the reorganization of the Society on its present basis, not to mention the years before that to which the memory of man hardly runneth, every autumn the people of the State have loved to gather at the Capital for the Great State Fair. As an institution it is one of our oldest, one of our most uplifting because stimulating, one of the most solidly fixed in the traditions and affections of North Carolinians. So this is Jubilee year, with the happy slogan, Fiftieth Great State Fair and Home-coming Jubilee, for many who have left the land of the long-leaf pine and won demand for their services to mankind in other commonwealths have indicated a desire to go to the Fair once more. It is expected that the Capital City of Raleigh will make it easy and pleasant for the home-comers to join in the jubilee. In the face of a number of years of increasingly unprecedented successes the management has become so firmly convinced of the unshakeable nature of the public sentiment upon which the State Fair rests as a foundation, that the year 1010 finds it embarked upon a policy of providing more lasting and permanent structures at the Fair Grounds. There is under construction at this writing, to be completed before the opening of the Fair of 1010, a reinforced concrete...
