Huge Provision Orders. The respect in which the products of this company is held by our own government is evidenced by the fact that iluring the late Spanish-American war the United States Government placed with the Dold factory, within one week, two of the largest of the big single orders which were placed for meats at that time. One of these huge orders was for 2,300,000 pounds of side meats, hams, bacon and lard. The other order was for 7i)0, (MX) pounds of dressed beef and other fresh meats. These were by no means the only war orders which this company filled, but they were two of the very biggest of the large emergency orders placed by our government for Army Commissary Supplies. They not only twire testimony of the War Department s confidence in the meat products put...
