

The Pennsylvania corporation reporter Volume 10

By George Ross Hull

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 208 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.4in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1922 Excerpt: . . . upon by the appellant Company, namely, that it may adopt uniform rates having regard to the probable quantity of water which applicants are likely to consume and to the distance from the place wherever the water is to be drawn does not help its contention. This clause evidently refers to the distance of the pipes or trunks from the source of supply and not to the service pipes leading from the main pipes. If it were otherwise, and the Act contemplated that the consumers were to lay and pay for their own service pipes from the main to the curb line, what possible difference could it make to the company what distance the service pipes had to be thus laid It could only affect the company provided it and not the consumer was to bear the expense of their laying and maintenance. Nor are we forced...

READ ONLINE

[4.8 MB]

Reviews

A very wonderful pdf with perfect and lucid explanations. This can be for those who statte that there had not been a worth reading. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Mr. Stone Kunze

I just started off reading this article pdf. It is probably the most remarkable ebook we have go through. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Jeanette Kreiger